Candice Oneida Intro:

Candice Oneida is an international speaker and is Australia's #1 Feminine Success Coach.

Her background in corporate Australia for 13 years and then starting up five successful companies of her own over the last 30 years, led her to the realization that feminine principles were sadly lacking in the business world.

Earlier on in her career she worked in the corporate world as a commercial interior designer. She was a consultant to some of the largest design practices and corporations in Australia such as Bankers Trust and Citibank as well as the two largest telecommunications companies Telstra and Optus communications. She then exited the corporate world and started up five of her own successful companies, two of which are now multi-million dollar companies.

15 years ago Candice moved to the US to start up a passion project which is still a thriving non-profit meditation school. Candice has personally taught over 500 workshops and worked with 5000 women from all around the world on the topics of meditation, self development, sexuality and the feminine.

Please help me welcome Candice to the stage with a big round of applause...
